

Copyright Usage of Chalkboard Productions Materials

In regards to the copyright usage, please note that the word “materials” below will refer to all products created and sold by Chalkboard Productions (unless otherwise specified with its own copyright information). The word “teacher” as used below will refer to the teacher who purchased the materials produced by Chalkboard Productions.

Worksheets:

All worksheet materials that come with Chalkboard Productions DVDs and CDs include Blackline Masters for teachers to use with their students. These worksheets may be copied as necessary for the teacher’s students to use as long as the teacher owns the DVD(s) and/or CD(s). Worksheets may be modified for the teacher to use in their own classroom. Portions of the worksheets may be cut and pasted into a quiz as long as it is used exclusively for the classes of the teacher. They may be put on a school website if and only if they are available only to the students of the teacher. They may not be posted on any publicly accessible site.

Big Screen Readers:

The Big Screen Reader PowerPoints, MP4 videos and worksheets may be copied onto CDs to loan to students. They may be put on a school website if and only if they are available only to the students of the teacher. They may not be made available to the general public or to students who are not in the classes of the teacher who purchased the materials. The PowerPoints may be modified to suit the teacher’s classroom needs. The MP4 videos may be downloaded as a loan to students’ iPods/MP4 players for their personal use while they are taking the teacher’s class. Students should be informed that sharing these MP4 videos with others will be in violation of the copyrights on the materials.

Alternate Reality Modules:

The Alternate Reality Module PowerPoints may be modified to suit the teacher’s classroom needs. Words may be changed to fit the teacher’s preferences.

Novelettes:

Individual copies of the novelettes are available in CD or electronic download formats. To use in a school situation, the teacher or school needs to purchase a site license. The current site license fees are $50 (for up to 25 students), $100 (26-100 students), $150 (100-150 students), $200 (more than 150 students). The cost is determined by the maximum number of students who will use the materials during any particular school year. The teacher(s) receive(s) the right to reproduce the materials from the master CD in any format they need to use with the students in their classes. The materials may be uploaded to a school server if and only if the materials are not made public and can be accessed only by the teacher(s) and students in that school. With a site license, the teacher may print out and copy off any or all pages from the novelette. The teacher may cut and paste portions of the novelette into a quiz for their use. The teacher may use the materials in any way they choose to be useful for their classes, as long as the materials are in keeping with the site license agreement.

No materials from Chalkboard Productions may be copied and sold at any time. These materials are sold for individual teachers to use with their own classes.
